Congratulations on your volunteer involvement. We welcome your participation and wish to aid you in gaining recognition for your efforts. With this form, you can record your hours in service to the community for the Center for Community-Based Learning and the Donahue Institute for Public Life and Values.

Notes:

- Please distinguish those activities that are required by your courses (Service Learning) and those that were Community Service. If the activity was completed for a course, please include the course name and number and the instructor
- Attach additional sheets if needed.
- Site supervisors at the community non-profit should provide their signature to verify service hours. Exception: For CCBL programming, any CCBL staff member or coordinator's initials will be sufficient.
- Please make a copy of this form before submitting-you can use the copier in the Center for Community-Based Learning.
