8:00 P.M. – 9:00 P.M.  Mind Reader Eric Dittleman
[de Witt Hall – Winslow Academic Center]
Ever wonder what it would be like to know what someone else was thinking? What if you knew exactly what someone else was going to do before they did it? Eric Dittleman knows what that’s like and has been reading minds at Universities, comedy clubs, and private events all across the country. As seen as a semi-finalist NBC’s “America's Got Talent” and a guest on “The Ellen DeGeneres Show”, Eric Dittleman combines amazing mind reading with stand-up and improvisational comedy. Whether playing a round of Pictionary while Eric's eyes are duct taped shut or having a personal thought revealed from their minds, audience members become part of the show and leave with a fun experience that they’ll never forget.” Event is free but advanced registration is encouraged.

Throughout the tour, visit specific checkpoints labeled within the map where you will find Lasell Alumni SWAG stations. The last stop of the tour is the Wedeman Art Gallery. The exhibition showcases paintings, sculptures and video works by the members of the Lasell University community. Visit the Alumni Relations table, which can be found under the Alumni Celebration tent to pick up your map!

12:30 P.M.  The Lion King Play
[Leaving from the Arnow Campus Center]
A lively stage adaptation of the Academy Award-winning 1994 Disney film, The Lion King is the story of a young lion prince living in the flourishing African Pride Lands. Born into the royal family, precocious cub Simba spends his days exploring the sprawling savanna grasslands and idolizing his kingly father, Mufasa, while youthfully shirking the responsibility his position in life requires. When an unthinkable tragedy, orchestrated by Simba's wicked uncle, Scar, takes his father's life, Simba flees the Pride Lands, leaving his loss and the life he knew behind. Eventually companioned by two hilarious and unlikely friends, Simba starts anew. But when weight of responsibility and a desperate plea from the now ravaged Pride Lands come to find the adult prince, Simba must take on a formidable enemy, and fulfill his destiny to be king. A vibrant and exciting tale from the great creatives at Disney, The Lion King is a story of love and redemption that nobody should miss. Lunch option not included. Trip Cost: $40 per person — Advanced registration is required.
