May 2015

A Celebration of the Vibrancy of Newton’s Cultural Life

Sponsored by:
Mayor’s Office for Cultural Affairs, Linda Plaut, Director
Newton Community Pride, Ruth Barnett, President
Gloria Gawris, Chair

What is it? A fabulous month-long, city-wide Celebration & Showcase of Newton’s talented citizens and organizations.

When? All of May 2015

Events: Over 50 events (and growing): Dance, Literature, Music, Film, Theater, Opera, Food, Art, Concerts, Lectures, Exhibitions, Ethnic Celebrations, Teen and Kid Talent, Newton’s HomeGrown Talent Show, Dancing Under the Stars on Union Street and more, for all ages.

Where? At numerous indoor and outdoor venues across Newton and at the Newton Cultural Center at City Hall.

Who? Notable, award winning Newton residents in the arts, Newton’s cultural organizations, talented residents and You!

How to get involved? Contact lplaut@newtonma.gov, visit www.newtoncommunitypride.org/festival or call 617-796-1540.

Proceeds support Newton’s cultural and social service organizations and our four food pantries.
