

LASELL COLLEGE

Resources for Working, Interning, or Teaching English Abroad

- The Fulbright Program offers paid English teaching positions around the world. The application process is competitive. <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/about/types-of-grants#eta>
- CIEE's Teach Abroad program offers college graduates paid English teaching positions in Asia, Latin America and Spain. <https://www.ciee.org/teach/>
- The JET Programme is sponsored by the Japanese government and provides paid English teaching positions in Japan for one to two years. <http://jetprogramme.org/ja/>
- The Teach and Learn in Korean (TaLK) program funds 300 undergraduate students or recent graduates each semester to teach conversational English in rural Korean schools. The program is fully funded by the Korean government and even includes roundtrip airfare! <http://www.talk.go.kr/>
- BUNAC provides temporary work permits for Australia, New Zealand, the UK, Ireland, France, and Canada. Their services also include guidance on securing a job and housing. Jobs are typically in the service sector. <http://www.bunac.org/usa>
- Check out teflSearch's job search feature to find the right TEFL job for you. Their website also features detailed guides on what it's like to live and teach in Japan, Korea, and China. <http://teflsearch.com/>
- AIESEC is an organization that partners with global businesses to place students and recent graduates with international internships. <http://aiesec.org/>
- Transitions Abroad is a good resource for links on international internship opportunities. <http://www.transitionsabroad.com/listings/work/internships/articles/international-internships.shtml>
- Intern Abroad has a searchable database of internships overseas. <http://www.goabroad.com/intern-abroad>
- Adventure Teaching provides placements for teaching English in schools China and South Korea. <http://www.adventureteaching.com/>
- Go Overseas is a searchable database for teaching or interning opportunities abroad. <http://www.gooverseas.com/>